

11th SEAMEO-University of Tsukuba Symposium (Virtual)

Technology and Values - Driven Transformation in Education

20-22 February 2023

BIODATA

Ms Edith Hammer

Programme Specialist
UNESCO Institute for Lifelong
Learning
Germany

Edith Hammer is a Programme Specialist at the UNESCO Institute for Lifelong Learning (UIL), based in Hamburg, Germany. Within the “Skills throughout Life” Programme, she has been leading activities for policy research and capacity building in the field of lifelong learning at national and local levels. During the last years, her work was focuses on the promotion of lifelong learning in the higher education sector. Within that context, she has been leading an international research project, including a global survey and case studies exploring the contribution of higher education institutions to lifelong learning. Edith has more than ten years of work experience in the education sector. Before joining UIL in 2017, she worked in strategic positions in the university sector for seven years, including as Deputy Director of the University of Vienna’s Lifelong Learning Center and as a Programme Specialist at the Center for Research Strategy at Freie Universität Berlin. She holds a doctorate in Media and Communication from the University of Vienna.