

I have known about SEAMEO - a large organization specializing in education and training through my school's report on a major seminar in Southeast Asian countries. This information is very useful for me and my friends, we are studying the commercial business with specialized international trade. This Online Courses is consequential to learn more about international economics knowledge, it offers an opportunity to improve your English skills and understanding to apply it in learning process as well as in practice in the future. I have followed SEAMEO Online Series since its first livestream on Youtube, the amount of information that SEAMEO has provided to me more than what I had expected. Thanks to SEAMEO, I knew a lot of things about the impact of Covid-19 pandemic in current situation, and how countries in the world are constantly learning in any situation during this tough time, it was so amazing. After watching two seminars online, I got the basic understanding to boost my online learning, methods and useful tools to make itself effectively. People in the modern era of creativity and innovation should have cultivated of each people's profession, if we can do it flexibly, it will be a powerful assistant for you to go further in your career path. Sincere thanks to you, SEAMEO.
